50th Solano Avenue Stroll Celebrates 50 Years of Community, Culture and Commerce

Free, one-mile street festival returns to Albany and Berkeley on Sunday, September 13, 2026

ALBANY/BERKELEY, Calif. — July 20, 2026 — The Solano Avenue Association presents the 50th Solano Avenue Stroll, a free, one-mile-long street festival taking place on Solano Avenue in Albany and Berkeley on Sunday, September 13, 2026, from 10 a.m. to 5 p.m.

Since 1974, the Solano Avenue Stroll has brought the twin cities of Albany and Berkeley together for a celebration of local businesses, restaurants, artists, musicians, entertainers, nonprofit organizations, schools and the community.

This year's 50th anniversary Stroll will feature the businesses and organizations that make Solano Avenue a special destination, along with food vendors, local artists, jewelers, makers, crafts, games, musicians and more. The event is free and family-friendly.

The day's activities include the Micro Parade beginning at 10 a.m., followed by a full day of entertainment and community activities along the Avenue.

Event Details: Sunday, September 13, 2026 | 10 a.m.–5 p.m. | Solano Avenue, Albany & Berkeley, California
